Set MOLESKINE Impressionism Musée d'Orsay + 6 d'Orsay coloured pencils

Impressionist art is so iconic and beloved that we sometimes forget how bold and original it truly was—and how revolutionary the Impressionists were

The artists behind the movement challenged the conventions of their time, favoring expressive brushstrokes and capturing fleeting moments and impressions through emotion rather than precision

The Moleskine Impressionism collection draws inspiration from their bold spirit and rule-breaking style

Sweeping colors dissolve across each notebook cover, offering a fresh interpretation of timeless masterpieces—an inspiration from the Impressionists

This creative set combines a fabric-bound notebook with a set of watercolor pencils—an inviting space to capture thoughts, sketches and inspiration as soon as they come to life

The notebook cover is a vivid interpretation of Claude Monet's "Les Dindons", reimagined through flowing color and texture

Whether you are sketching, shading or adding a touch of paint, these watercolor pencils are ready to follow your lead

Made from natural cedar wood, they are housed in an elegant red tin that slips easily into any bag or art kit

This gift box makes the perfect gift for art lovers

Discover the same freedom these painters felt

Let go of perfection and trust your intuition—every page is an opportunity to translate feelings into words

With pen in hand, transform fleeting thoughts into lasting impressions

Gift box inspired by Impressionist art
